Extraordinary Superstition in Devonshire.

perstition which pervades the ignorant among occurred at Northlew last week. Some gipseys having encamped in the neighborhood, one of the female members of the tribe ascertained from the wife of a farm laborer that she had a daughter in the last stage of consumption. The gipsy represented that the child had been "bewitched," and that she could rule the spell, which would effect a cure, for two sovereigns. The mother of the child cheerfully paid the money, but next day the wily gipsy returned it, and said it was not sufficient, but twenty puends more in gold would do it. The cottager's wife, in her 'native simplicity, went and borrowed ten pounds from a neighbor, and, with another ten sovereigns she had in the house saved from her husband's earnings, added the twenty pounds to the two pounds already in the gipsey's hands. Soon as the money was paid, the affrighted woman was bound over to secreey by the gipsy, Dealer in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Crockery Hardware, &c., Shalersville, Portage county Ohio. who mumbled out a few disjointed texts of Scripture, and left with the promise that the child would be cured on the following Friday, when an angel would appear and return the money. Nortex to the Usronetant Payate.—I feel it a duty incumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchis's Uterine Catholicon has proved to me. For two years my health was miserable; I was almost mable to walk. Physicians pronounced my case failing of the womb, extensive ul certations, commencing with finor albus. The pains, irritation prestration, and the intolerable feeld discharge, rendered tife a burden. 'In this miserable condition Dr. F. P. Novland recommended fir, Marchis's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bothers I find myself in perfect health. Gratitude for my restoration makes me artently desire that all my averalish more meaning the meaning of the more makes me artently desire that all my averalish manner.
